- 20.1 We reserve the right to ask for further information in order to process your Order.
- 20.2 You will be able to correct the details of your Order at any time until your Order is submitted to us. After that point you will no longer be able to correct details on your Order, so please make sure they are correct at that time.
- 20.3 Submitting your Order on the electronic platform, verbally or via email will authorise us to action your Order. You will not be allowed to cancel it other than subject to section 24.
- 20.4 Should you wish to make any amendments to your Order, this will be at our discretion and if we are reasonably able to do so. If you wish to amend your Order please contact us. We are under no obligation to accept any such amendments to your Order and we accept no liability or responsibility if we decide not to do so.
- 20.5 All Orders are subject to acceptance by us and we will confirm such acceptance to you by sending you an email that confirms the Order has been accepted. The Contract between us and you will only be formed once we show or send you the Order Confirmation. We will treat the sending of the Confirmation by us, as receipt by you. Until that time there will be no binding arrangement for us to supply you with any services. You should retain a copy of the Order Confirmation for your records.
- 20.6 We will assign an Order ID to your Order which will be contained in the Order Confirmation. It will help us if you can tell us the Order ID whenever you contact us about your Order.
- 20.7 When making an Order you rely solely on your own judgement. If we provide you with information concerning any matter including (without limit) the foreign exchange markets, it is on a voluntary (not advisory) basis and we do not accept responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of such information or assume any duty of care in relation to it.
- 20.8 In entering into a Contract under these terms, you understand that:
- a) late arrival of funds to us may result in next day or deferred delivery (and fees may apply);
 - b) any forward transactions will be subject to daily Margin requirement;
 - c) we cannot predict future exchange rates in the event of market movement;
 - d) we will only accept payment directly from client authorised and approved bank accounts unless otherwise specified and agreed with us.

21. Providing the products

- 21.1 We will provide the currency to you within one Business Day after we receive payment in full in accordance with the Order.

- 21.2 If our supply of the currency is delayed by an event outside our control, then we will contact you as soon as possible to let you know and we will take steps to minimise the effect of the delay.
- 21.3 We will need certain information from you (e.g. evidence of source of funds, invoice, etc) so that we can supply the currency to you. We will contact you to ask for this information. If you do not give us this information within a reasonable time of us asking for it, or if you give us incomplete or incorrect information, we may either end the Contract or make an additional charge of a reasonable sum to compensate us for any extra work that is required as a result. We will not be responsible for supplying the currency late or not supplying any part of it if this is caused by you not giving us the information we need within a reasonable time of us asking for it.
- 21.4 We may have to change or suspend our services to:
- a) deal with technical problems or make technical changes;
 - b) update the product to reflect changes in relevant laws and regulatory requirements;
 - c) make changes to the product as requested by you or notified by us to you.
- 21.5 We will contact you in advance to tell you we will be suspending supply of the product, unless the problem is urgent or an emergency. You may contact us to end the Contract for an Order if we suspend it, or tell you we are going to suspend it and we will refund any sums you have paid in advance for the product in respect of the period after you end the Contract.

22. Stop loss orders and limit orders

- 22.1 A stop loss order is a conditional Order that will become either a spot transaction or forward transaction (in accordance with the Contract Note) if the target currency sells at or below the specified exchange rate before the agreed deadline (either the agreed date or good till cancelled as specified in the Contract Note).
- 22.2 A limit order is a conditional order that will become either a spot transaction or forward transaction (in accordance with the Contract Note) if the target currency sells at or above the specified exchange rate before the agreed deadline (either the agreed date or good till cancelled as specified in the Contract Note).

23. Price and payment

- 23.1 We will let you know the applicable exchange rate at the time when you place your Order. As long as we receive sufficient money from you by the time specified in clause 23.4 we will convert your money using that exchange rate. We use our best efforts to ensure that the exchange rate advised to you is correct. However please see clause 23.2 for what happens if we discover an error in the exchange rate of your Order.
- 23.2 If there is an error in the exchange rate communicated to you, we will contact you for your instructions before we accept your Order. In the event that we are unable to contact you within a reasonable timeframe, we may not be able to accept your Order.
- 23.3 We reserve the right to reissue the Contract Note to correct any inadvertent mistake, error or omission and we agree to do so promptly as soon as it comes to our attention.
- 23.4 We accept payment with various methods as confirmed to you in your Contract Note. When you must pay depends on what type of Order you are making:
- a) for spot transactions, we must receive payment of the sale currency, in full, from you into the Client Nominated Account no later than 17:00 on the Value Date; and

- b) for forward transactions:
 - i. you will immediately (in the normal course of events within 24 hours after the Order is placed unless otherwise agreed) pay into the Margin Nominated Account in cleared funds a Margin as determined in accordance with clause 23.6(b) below or such other percentage as we may specify at our sole discretion;
 - ii. we must receive payment of the sale currency in full from you into the Client Nominated Account no later than 17:00 on the Value Date of the particular forward transaction.

23.5 If paying under the above terms, we will honour the rate and value of the transaction, however for payments to be sent as same day, earlier cut off times may apply. We will inform you of this earlier time, if it applies, when you are setting up your Order with us.

23.6 The provisions of this clause apply to forward transactions.

- a) We may in our absolute discretion, at any time before or after we agree to enter into a Contract, require you to provide us with a Margin. You acknowledge that this money will not generally be covered by the safeguarding requirements in regulation 23 of the Payment Services Regulations 2017 and agree that the principles set out in this clause will apply;
- b) In assessing the sum to be requested as Margin we will, acting reasonably, use our discretion in making a determination of the risk of the trade and request an appropriate sum, given the risk determination, as Margin for that forward transaction;
- c) We will hold the Margin for you in a segregated client account. You are still the beneficial and legal owner of this money until such point in time as we incur any costs, losses or liabilities in connection with or arising out of your Order(s) including, without limit, liabilities we incur with third party currency dealers, exchanges, brokers, banks or similar entities. Then we will become the beneficial owner of that proportion of the money, held as Margin, equal to our costs, losses, or liabilities, without notice or demand by us;
- d) We reserve the right to transfer the Margin to our counterparty bank or third party provider as Margin to cover the corresponding forward transaction entered into.
- e) We reserve the right to make a Margin call to re-establish the Margin to the original percentage level agreed for the particular Order if the Margin subsequently falls below an acceptable threshold for that Order;
- f) All Margin calls must be paid within 24 hours of our first communicating the Margin call to you;
- g) The Margin will vest in us automatically;
 - i. on the Value Date;
 - ii. if you breach any material term of these terms;
 - iii. in the circumstances set out in clause 26.1(e).
- h) We may also offset any Margin(s) or other monies we are holding in respect of any one of your Orders, against any costs, losses and/or liabilities that we incur in connection with or arising out of any other Order you have with us.

23.7 We accept no responsibility in the event that you send currency to any account other than the Client Nominated Account so you must check that the correct Client Nominated Account is set out in your Order.

23.8 All funds provided by you under an Order (whether as security or otherwise) may be appropriated by us if we incur any liability in respect of any transaction or in the event that you are unable to pay sums due to us or breach of these terms.

23.9 We may, at our discretion, make payments to third party introducers.

- 23.10 We will not be obliged to pay you interest on any Margin or client money held by us on your behalf.
- 23.11 You must pay all amounts due to us under these terms in full without any set-off, counterclaim, deduction or withholding (other than any deduction or withholding of tax as required by law).
- 23.12 We are not a currency trading platform. Accordingly, you should not use our services for this purpose (including sending us multiple Orders without the intention of completing all the Orders). If we detect that you are using our services for this purpose, we may, at our discretion, set a limit on the number of Orders you may send to us or refuse to accept any further Orders from you.

24. Your rights to end the Contract

- 24.1 Under Section 11 (1) the Financial Services (Distance Marketing) Regulations 2004, you do not have any right to cancel any Contract.
- 24.2 You may have a right to end the Contract, depending on what you have bought, whether there is anything wrong with it, how we are performing and when you decide to end the Contract:
- a) If what you have bought is faulty or misdescribed you may have a legal right to end the Contract (or to get a service re-performed or to get some or all of your money back);
 - b) If you want to end the Contract because of something we have done or have told you we are going to do, see clause 24.3;
 - c) In all other cases (if we are not at fault) see clause 24.4.
- 24.3 If you are ending a Contract for a reason set out at (a) to (e) below the Contract will end immediately and we will refund you in full for any products which have not been provided. The reasons are:
- a) we have told you about an upcoming change to the financial services product or these terms which you do not agree to;
 - b) we have told you about an error in the price or description of the product you have ordered and you do not wish to proceed;
 - c) there is a risk that supply of the products may be significantly delayed because of events outside our control;
 - d) we have suspended supply of the products for technical reasons, or notify you we are going to suspend them for technical reasons, in each case for a significant period, and in any event no less than 5 business days; or
 - e) you have a legal right to end the Contract because of something we have done wrong.
- 24.4 Even if we are not at fault, you may still be able to end the Contract before it is completed, but this may be subject to deductions and/or you may have to pay us compensation. A Contract for services is completed when we have finished providing the services and you have paid for them. If you want to end a Contract before it is completed where we are not at fault, just contact us to let us know. If this is possible, the Contract will end and we will refund any sums paid by you for products not provided but we may deduct from that refund (or, if you have not made an advance payment, charge you) reasonable compensation for the net costs we will incur as a result of your ending the Contract.

25. How to end the Contract with us

- 25.1 Please contact us via the contact page facility on the Website.

26. Our rights to end the Contract

26.1 We may end the Contract if you break it. We may at any time end the Contract for an Order and/or close out all or part of any Order from the market and/or amend the Order to reflect a change in the exchange rate by writing to you if:

- a) you do not make any payment to us when it is due in accordance with these terms;
- b) you are in material breach of these terms or fail to comply with your obligations in respect of an Order;
- c) you are or we have reason to believe you are in breach of any relevant statute, regulation or regulatory regime;
- d) it becomes unlawful for us to perform the services;
- e) you become unable to pay your debts as they become due or have a bankruptcy petition presented against them or you propose a form of composition or arrangement to its creditors or if you cease or threaten to cease to carry on all or a part of your business;
- f) any of the events specified above or anything analogous to them occurs under the laws of any applicable jurisdiction;
- g) we are requested or directed to do so by any competent court of law, government authority, public agency, or law enforcement agency;
- h) we have reason to believe you are involved in any fraudulent activity, money laundering, terrorism financing or other criminal or illegal activity; or
- i) we consider that a forward transaction is not or ceases to be a MiFID Exempt Forward Transaction.

26.2 If we end the Contract in the situations set out in clause 26.1 we will refund any money you have paid in advance for products we have not provided but we may deduct or charge you reasonable compensation for the net costs we will incur as a result of your breaking the Contract.

27. Our responsibilities for loss or damage suffered by you

27.1 Both parties recognise that Orders that are activated are filled at the best possible rate and on a best efforts basis, and are not guaranteed at the rate at which they are entered. There is therefore a risk that such Orders may be executed on less advantageous terms.

27.2 It should be recognised that any Order is entered at your risk and that we shall not be liable for any errors in such payment requests entered by you. Should any errors occur due to the incorrect inputting of data by you, we shall endeavour to retrieve such funds (but make no guarantee that we will be able to) on the basis that any costs incurred in this retrieval shall be paid by you (whether or not such retrieval is successful). We shall not be liable for any loss of interest or any subsequent cost or loss as a result of the Order being misdirected to the incorrect recipient.

27.3 Orders given by email or other internet communication are not secure and are sent at your own risk. Where an Order received by email or other internet communication is later found to be incorrect or to have been intercepted by a third party and altered, the liability for any loss resulting from such incorrect or altered Order shall remain with you.
